THE ROXY CINEMA

With plush red velvet seating, state-of-the-art projection, and surround sound, The Roxy Cinema is the perfect venue for film screenings and theatre style meetings where the accessibility to the oversized screen is ideal for hooking up overheads, Blu-ray, and laptops for PowerPoint presentations. Right outside, the concession stand serves popcorn, beer, wine and tasty snacks to enjoy during the show. You'll definitely score bonus points if you book The Django next door for light bites and conversation afterward.

They say jazz sounds best in New York City one floor below street level. This cellar club, inspired by classic Jazz Age Parisian boîtes, features brick walls, vaulted ceilings and a state-of-the-art Meyer Sound System. The venue consists of two bars, open dining space and stage for live performances and meetings. Events that go over fabulously at the Django have included album release parties and film screening after parties (it's possible to book the Roxy Cinema, then move next door to the Django to celebrate.)

Be a part of the downtown scene by having your own party within it. The Roxy Lounge, gazing up into a dramatic 8-story atrium and featuring a stage with nightly live jazz, has plenty of cozy, glamorous spaces-within-spaces for cocktails and conversation. The adjoining Roxy Bar, with its glossy black bar, gilded Art-Deco bar chairs and celestial wall coverings, also features the Oyster Bar - a perfect addition to the food and entertainment lineup. The Roxy Bar & Lounge are well-suited for holiday parties and receptions.
